This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The force at my disposal for the performance of this work was provided at the time when not more than 800 violations were transmitted for prosecution each quarter. During the last six months, however, I find that over 2,000 violations each quarter have been sent to this office for actual legal work. As each of these actions necessitates as much actual work as a proceeding in the Supreme Court, it is obvious that the force just sufficient for dealing with the smaller number of violations is wholly inadequate to cope with the larger number.

Very respectfully,

JOHN P. O'BRIEN, Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Note—In the Borough of Brooklyn it has been the practice for the Superintendent of Buildings to charge all violations to the Law Department soon after the violation notice is served, irrespective of whether legal action is desired or not. This practice accounts for the large number of violations upon which no action has been taken by the Law Department. All these violations have been returned to the Bureau of Buildings, and hereafter only such violations will be sent to the Law Department as actually require legal action.

Report of Change of Grade Damage Commission—Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards.

Report of Counsel in Charge for the Year 1903.

January 2, 1904.

Hon. JOHN J. DELANY, Corporation Counsel:

DEAR SIR—I submit a report of the work done in proceedings to review certain decisions of the above Commission during the year 1903.

This Commission was established by chapter 537 of the Laws of 1893, amended by chapter 567 of the Laws of 1894 and other acts, and was given jurisdiction to hear and determine claims for damages caused by reason of changes of street grades in part of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards to the real property abutting on such streets, provided the owners of such real property filed claims with the Comptroller and duplicates with the Corporation Counsel within a time limited (December 7, 1893). Nine hundred and ninety claims have been filed in which the aggregate amount claimed exceeds $4,000,000.

The area over which the Commission was given jurisdiction is limited to the area within which the grades were changed in connection with the separation of the track and street grades over the New York and Harlem Railroad, and extends from the Harlem river to Williamsbridge, and from one to three blocks on both sides of said railroad.

All of the claims filed were disposed of by the Commission, and awards or orders of dismissal filed with the Comptroller prior to September 15, 1902, at which time the Commissioners' resignations were accepted.

Certain proceedings were instituted by the claimants to review the decision of the Commissioners which determined that they had no jurisdiction to hear certain claims which had been dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, but the orders of dismissal subsequently vacated by the Commission. This decision was upon the ground that the Commission could not rehear and, as to all but two of these claims, upon the further ground that the claims were not within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners as defined in said acts.

In November, 1902, an application for peremptory writ of mandamus in matter of Steeves, a test case, was denied by Mr. Justice Bischoff, sitting Special Term, Part I. No appeal was taken.

The claimants in twenty claims then sued out in December, 1902, writs of certiorari to review the decision of the Commission.

The City moved in February, 1903, to quash these writs, but the motion was denied and on appeal the order was affirmed in May, 1903. The title of this proceeding was People ex rel. Belmont vs. Leonard, and it was a test case for the twenty proceedings.

Returns were then filed in the cases of People ex rel. Belmont vs. Leonard and People ex rel. Steeves vs. Leonard, and the cases argued in the Appellate Division, First Department, in October, 1903. These writs were unanimously dismissed, in November, 1903, upon the ground that the Commissioners had no power to rehear, Mr. Justice O'Brien writing the opinion. Appeals were taken by the relators to the Court of Appeals, which will probably be reached for argument on February 8, 1904.

In the opinion of the Appellate Division it was pointed out that the remedy of the claimants was either by certiorari to review the original order of dismissal or, if the facts justified such a motion, by moving at Specal Term to vacate the original orders of dismissal.

No writs of certiorari have been taken out to review these orders of dismissal of claims and the time has long since expired. Motions to vacate these orders were made at Special Term, Part I., in December, 1903, in Matter of Belmont and Matter of Steeves, and the cases have been argued before Mr. Justice Leventritt and briefs submitted, but no decision has yet been rendered.

Under the statutes providing for this Commission, the time to submit evidence and to render a decision expired July 1, 1903, with power in the Appellate Division, First Department, to grant an extension of time by order (chapter 729, Laws 1900).

Such an application was made by a number of the relators in the certiorari proceedings pending and the Appellate Division entered an order in the form proposed by the City, extending such time to May 1, 1904, but only in the claims involved in the twenty certiorari proceedings in which appeals to the Court of Appeals have been taken by the Relators in two test cases and four other claims, in which the claimants appeared by the same attorney and moved to reopen their claims which had previously been dismissed.

The only other work in connection with this Commission during the year 1903 was the settlement of awards in three claims to review which certiorari proceedings had been instituted by the Comptroller, but the writs dismissed by the Appellate Division (Mr. Justice Van Brunt dissenting) and appeals taken by the Comptroller to the Court of Appeals. These settlements were made as follows:

Claim No. 968, Alexander D. Duff and others, claimants. The proceeding brought by the Comptroller by certiorari to review the award of $8,700 made to the claimants has been settled by payment to the claimants of $6,525 and interest in place of the sum awarded, the reduction being $2,175.

Claim No. 969, Nelson Smith, Jr., claimant. The proceeding brought by the Comptroller by certiorari to review the award of $4,500 made to the claimant has been settled by payment to the claimant of $3,000 and interest in place of the sum awarded, the reduction being $700.

Claim No. 970, William H. Mountfort, claimant. The proceeding brought by the Comptroller by certiorari to review the award of $4,500 made to the claimant has been settled by payment to the claimant of $3,375 and interest in place of the sum awarded, the reduction being $1,125.

Schedule "A," hereto annexed, contains a review of the special statutes from which the jurisdiction of this Commission is derived.

Schedule "B," annexed, is a copy of the order of the Appellate Division extending the time of the Commission to receive evidence and make decision in these twenty-four claims about which this litigation has arisen.

In the first twenty claims enumerated in the order writs of certiorari were sued out, and in the last four claims motions to vacate were made before the Commission but never determined. The aggregate amount claimed in these twenty-four claims exceeds $150,000.

Reference is made to the opinion of the Appellate Division in People ex rel. Belmont vs. Leonard (November, 1903), the opinion of Mr. Justice Bischoff denying the mandamus (November, 1902) and the briefs for the City in the Appellate Division and upon the motion to vacate (December, 1903) in Matter of Belmont and Matter of Steeves, for a full explanation of the City's contention in these proceedings, which is briefly, that as to all of the twenty claims, except possibly two claims, the Commission has no jurisdiction of the subject matter of the claims, as the lands are not within the territorial area to which the Commission's jurisdiction is limited; and further, as to all of these claims, the question of jurisdiction was judicially determined adverse to the claimants, and that decision can only be reviewed on appeal by writ of certiorari, for which writs the claimants have neglected to apply.

It thus appears that the only pending proceedings in connection with the decisions of this Commission are the appeals to the Court of Appeals in People ex rel. Belmont vs. Leonard and People ex rel. Steeves vs. Leonard, which are test cases, and the proceedings at Special Term, Part I., by the claimants to vacate the original orders of dismissal.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT C. BEATTY, Counsel in Charge.

SCHEDULE A.

Review of Statutes.

In order to do away with grade crossings of the tracks of the New York and Harlem Railroad Company from the Harlem river north to Williamsbridge, the Legislature enacted chapter 721 of the Laws of 1887, which provided that the Park Department of the City should have power to make an agreement with the railroad company and file maps separating the street and track grades.

These maps, changing the grade as authorized, were filed in January, 1888.

At common law no right to recover any damages for these changes of grade existed, and the only statute at that time giving such right was sections 671, 873 and 874 of the old City Charter (Laws 1882, chapter 410), which authorized the Board of Assessors, in so far as applicable to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, to award damages caused by changes of grade to improved property only.

Chapter 537, Laws of 1893, established this Commission and, in part at least, created the right to recover damages. This right was conferred on persons owning real estate which had been damaged by changes of street grades under certain statutes mentioned, provided such owners filed a claim with the Comptroller and a duplicate with the Corporation Counsel within a time limited (December 7, 1893).

Nine hundred and ninety claims have been filed, in which the aggregate amount claimed exceeds $4,000,000.

This act was amended by chapter 567 of the Laws of 1894, which recites the original act at length as amended. The jurisdiction is enlarged by permitting a recovery for damages suffered after the filing of a claim and for property bevond 100 feet from the street, but such jurisdiction was limited by providing that the property in question must be situated within a certain area which extends from the Harlem river to Williamsbridge, and for one to three blocks on either side of the railroad.

It is by reason of this limitation contained in the amendment cited that a number of claims have been dismissed on the ground that the Commission had no jurisdiction to hear them, as the property involved was not situated within the area specified.

Further amendments are as follows:

Laws 1898, chapter 205. Permitting the filing of ten amended claims, the originals proving defective.

Laws 1899, chapter 707. Permitting the filing of four amended claims for the same reason.

Laws 1899, chapter 708. Extending the time for the Commission to make decision to July 1, 1901, all evidence to be submitted by July 1, 1900.

Laws 1899, chapter 709. Permitting the filing of five new claims, where, owing to the death of the attorney, the claims were not presented in time under the original act.

Laws 1900, chapter 729. Extending the time for the Commission to receive evidence and make decisions to July 1, 1903.

In 1901 Senate Bill No. 800 provided that any person owning land within this area who had failed to file a claim could now file such claim within a time limited. This passed both houses, but was vetoed by the Mayor upon the recommendation of the Corporation Counsel.

The amount awarded under this new act, it is believed, would have exceeded $250,000, besides prolonging the life of the Commission while the two hundred and fifty or more cases involved were on trial.

The awards of the Commission are embodied in certificates which are filed in the Finance Department and paid from the proceeds of bonds issued under section 6 of the act. Section 4 makes it the duty of the Corporation Counsel properly to protect, maintain and defend the interests of the City before the Commission.
